

Innovative process of molding with an interconnected automated island from an Industry 4.0 perspective

Beneficiary: Valmon Stampati S.p.A.

Initiative realized under priority Axis III: To promote the competitiveness of small and medium-sized companies.

Objective: Investments in favor of growth and employment.

Action: Aid for investments in machinery, installations and intangible assets and support of the processes of reorganization and corporate restructuring.

Project description: Acquisition of an innovative line of molding for strengthening current production capacity, rendering more efficient the system of control and traceability, in compliance with the new industry 4.0 regulations.